LAWFUL AUTHORITY

Parents

All parents have powers and responsibilities in relation to their children, which can only be challenged by a court order.

Lawful authority is not affected by the relationship between the parents, such as whether or not they have lived together or are married.

A court order, such as under the Family Law Act, may take away the authority of a parent to do something or may give it to another person.

Guardians

A guardian of a child also has lawful authority. A legal guardian is given lawful authority by a court order. In these cases the guardian is the person the child lives with who has day to day care and control of the child.

COURT ORDERS RELATING TO THE CHILD

Are there any court orders regarding the powers and responsibilities of the parents in relation to the child or access to the child?

NO (go to next section)

YES (please complete the following)

1. Bring the original court order/s for staff to see and a copy to attach to the enrolment form;

2. If these orders;

a) change the powers of a parent/guardian to:

*authorise the taking of the child outside the service by a staff member of the service

*consent to the medical treatment of the child

*request or permit the administration of medication to the child

*collect the child AND/OR

b) give these powers to someone else,

please describe these changes and provide the contact details of any person given powers:
